"Eissing Time" at the Davis. "Kissing Time," a musical comedy which scored a hit in Boston, New York and Chicago last season, comes to the Davis theatre for one night on Tuesday

Davis theatre for one night on Tuesday evening, Sept. 5th.

George V. Hobart, the author of "Experience" and "Buddies," has furnished an amusing story and the score is by Ivan Caryil, the componer of "The Pink Lady," "Chin Chin." "Tip Top," and many other musical successes.

The cast is an excellent one and includes Eve Lynn, one of the stars of "Piter Patter," at the Longacre theat the last season; Dan Marble, who play ed the leading roles in many of the Hoyt farces many years are and after wards appeared in principal roles in wards appeared in principal roles it "Babes in Toyland," "Go To It." under the management of Comstock and Ges and played the leading comedy role dur hands of Murray Stephens, Charles Horn Mabel Gould, Jesse Willingham and Charles Buell.

"Kissing Time" can justifiably bear of being well staged, beautifully cos-tumed enacted by an excellent cast and that has a chorus that not sing and dance but is also good to look

Ivan Caryll's melodies "Bill and Coo." "Kissing Time," "Love's Telephone," and "When the Wedding Bells Ring," are sure to find favor. The gowns worn by the principals and thorus are by Hickson and the production is the one used at the Lyric and Astortheatres last year.

Beginning Monday the Strand wifstart off the season with a special Universal attraction. We shall show every Universal attraction this season, being the only theatre in town that will have these specials. We sirve to please,
From the narrow maw of Wall Street poured an army on retreat. A retreat from the crashing, rearing grind of a day in the langing alley of the money changers. In successionidered solvents changers. In stoop-shouldered columns they harry toward the subway. In that they hurry toward the subway. In that crowd there was one man who had at atolon $50,000 from the bank that are him a measure living in exemange for his grueling work over the ledgers.

Could you spot him in the crowd?

Perhaps you will be able to identify him at the Strand theatre in Luning Lips. Edith Robert's masterful Unversal story of a woman's heart, or Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Even though playnors identify the man with the first sequence of the lazzinating picture. It will not be known until the last furiously fast rest whether or the last furiously fast rest whether of not be actually stole the money, whether he was justified if he did; or if he did not, who was the criminal

The story of "Laring Lips" is from the pen of the well known writer, John A. Moroso, and prepared for the screen by George Hively. It affords Miss Roberst and her able supporting cast an excellent vehicle. King Haggott a server favorite, in his own right directed the production. The manner in which he has built up the suspense of the plot I causing wide comment.

Ten As a Stimulent Has Marvelout Pawer.

Dr. M. Allen Stars of Columbia untversity, who in a recent report received by Charles Judge, India correspondent of the Tea and Coffee Trade Journal speaking of the increasing mental activity and endurance of the British aviator, ascribes it to the ty and endurance of the British aviator, ascribes it to tea. He mays for example, that, "while the American treopy in France generally at first preferred cooffee, American aviators invariably preferred tea before making hard flights, therein following the example of British aviators. A tean about to carry his life into deadly danger, relying upon safety solely on his nerve, may be strusted to select the article that will sustain him best."

The American aviators' testimontal to tea is the greatest that has over been given, for it is absolutely pure of any suspicion of undue predilection or prejudice. Those U. S. flying fighters faced death on tea in preference to any other drink."
